Committee Reports

Groundskeeping: Baarck reported on tree trimming estimates. The Tree Guy $2400.00, Cut Above $3200.00, Jaruzel $2025.00 (will take $500 off if give him 10 year membership to club). Bamberg made motion to accept bid from Cut Above. Krumanuer supported. Discussion ensued. Daenzer thought $3200.00 was too high. Bamberg withdrew his motion. Reviewed bids again. Lee made motion for Tree Guy, Piesko supported. Baarck called question, motion passed. Grounds committee to contact. Palmer mentioned sign for silent auction. Baarck stated moving silent auction to March. Hartman suggested placing signs in parking lot regarding leaving cars in parking lot "vehicles being towed at owners expense." Discussion ensued, Lee will get a clarification from FPD if signs are needed.

Shoot House/Trap & Skeet: Castle reported the committee met on September 5th. Committee members included Josh Castle, Bill Fischer, Curt McClure, Duane Hartman, George Safranek, Chris Castle, Jim Stange, Duck, Joe Duncan and Kara Duncan. Shoot house proposed they would maintain trap fields if the grounds committee would take care of targets on pistol/rifle range (build/replace them when needed – 50 yard twice a week & 100 yard once a week). Bamberg is ok with that. Palmer mentioned Pistol League puts up and maintains own targets. Palmer stated the posts the frames in need to be cleaned out. Shoot house and grounds will meet and discuss. Castle reported that Tuesday shoots are still doing well - $105 past Tuesday. Fox Club started on September 9th. November 1st will be the last Friday night shoot. October 29th the last Tuesday night shoot. Skeet lights fell during storm on September 10th, Duncan brought quote from Marshall Campbell, lights used now are sports lights. Light $465 each = $1860 for 4, bulbs $22.97 each, metal ballast $137 each. Also have 6 bulbs not working. Shoot house suggests putting lights back to what we have. Will need poles ($500 for metal pole), Castle will speak to Munchie and will call around for pole prices. Quote was passed around for review. $2300 - $3000. Motion made by Piesko to take care of issue not to exceed $3000. Daenzer supported. Discussion ensued. Motion rescinded. Davidek made motion not to exceed $5000. Hetzner supported. Baarck called to vote, motion passed. Duncan will get with Marshall Campbell. Next month will get trap machine prices. Castle attended a registered shoot and met the Vice President of national shoot, he is interested in Club. This could be a good thing for the Club.

Kitchen: Bennetts reported that he and Hetzner worked hard to clean and get ready for first smoker. There is a huge mold issue in freezer. Need mold resistant shelves, cost of 4 is $773.00. Bennetts meeting with Wes from Bennings Industrial Flooring on September 12th regarding floors in cooler. Freezer to be set at 38 degrees and only food in walk-in cooler. Packaged silverware was suggested. Will use current stock first then cost out packages. Motion made by Daenzer to purchase new shelves, supported by Lee. Motion passed. Bennetts to get flooring prices for entry way and cooler.

Cook: Krumnauer needs help for next smoker. Ordered foam mats for kitchen.

Scholarship: Daenzer reported that three people were given scholarship checks. One person changed major and withdrew application, $750 not being sent. Total for three scholarships, $2750.

Clubhouse/Parking Lot: Piesko reported on WIFI. Hetzner stated Air Advantage cannot do it. Palmer reported prices for Charter Business – 100 megabytes with 1 line is $69.97/month for 12 months with $99.00 install fee, 400 megabytes ultra with 1 line $114.97/month for 24 months with no installation fee, for September – May, $29.00/month for phone only May – September. Not sure if cables are up to date. WIFI would go to Shoot house as well. Palmer reported that Harper Alarm recommends four cameras – no quote yet. Motion made by Daenzer for the 400 megabyte option, Bennetts supported. Discussion ensued. Baarck called to question, motion passed.
